

THE LAST DAY.

The Teachers' Institute Will Adjourn This Afternoon.

Prof. Willis' Lecture on Mental Influences a Rare Treat Last Night.

Prof. Willis lectured at the Christian church last night in accordance with the announcement in yesterday's KENTUCKIAN. A large crowd heard him and he impressed most favorably all who were there.

The Institute entered upon its last day this morning and the published program was carried out.

The principal discussion of the morning was on United States History. This was opened by Prof. L. W. Guthrie and participated in by Prof. Jas. M. Calvin and Misses Nora Williamson and Minnie Stevenson.

At 11 o'clock Mr. L. McCartney, of the Hopkinsville Public Schools, discussed the subject of "School Management," with special reference to graded schools.

The institute will close this afternoon after finishing this program:

1:15—(a) Roll Call (b) Music (c) Announcements.

1:30—School Management—Government of the School.—E. M. Murphy, Miss Effie G. Wood, Geo. P. Craner, Miss Carrie Wood.

2:20—Recess and Music—10 minutes.

2:30—Nature Study—J. C. Willis.

3:20—Recess and Music—10 minutes.

3:30—Lecture—Child Study—J. C. Willis.

4:20—Miscellaneous Business—Adjournment.

The meeting has been a successful and profitable one throughout.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mr. A. M. Wallis has gone to St. Louis on business.

Senator R. C. Crenshaw was in town this morning.

Mr. A. S. White went to Crofton to-day on business.

Prof. Roger Harrison has returned from a visit to Richmond, Va.

Mr. Jas. M. Howe is confined to his bed, threatened with an attack of fever.

Master Duke Pettit is visiting his cousins, Chas. and Divnel Duke.

Mr. D. G. Wiley has returned from Dawson and is greatly improved in health.

Mrs. Mary P. Thomas went down to Eddyville last night to see her son, Lewis, who is quite sick.

Miss Florence Elgin, who has been on a week's visit to Dr. Geo. Lackey's family, of Pembroke, has returned home.

Mr. W. T. Williamson, who has been in rather bad health for several weeks, will go to Dawson Springs to-morrow morning to spend a few days.

Mrs. O. W. Waddill on yesterday afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock entertained in honor of her sister, Miss Willis, of Hopkinsville, who is here on a visit.—Madisonville Hustler.

Mrs. Joe McCarroll, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. N. R. Cromwell, on First street, returned home yesterday to Hopkinsville.—Henderson Gleaner.

Miss Mattie Duke has returned home from Princeton, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Mayme Pettit, who will be her guest for several days.

Mr. Jas. Brewer, of Okahumpka, Florida, will arrive in the city to-night on a visit to relatives. Mr. Brewer formerly lived in Christian county, but has been away for about 15 years or more.

Lost a Fine Mule.

A good mule belonging to Mr. George Johnson, of Big Rock, Tenn., died at Quarles & Tribble's livery stable last night. Mr. Johnson was having his wheat hauled to this city and when his team arrived the mules were taken to the stable. It was soon evident that the animals had been overheated and one of them died in a few minutes. The other one was in such a bad condition this morning that it had to be led home.

CASES IN COURT.

Some Interesting Legal Items Caught on the Fly.

The Veach Case Settled—The Work House Case—Will Case—Insurance Contest.

An authenticated copy of the will of David McCaleb, deceased, is being prepared by Circuit Clerk Starling to be passed upon by the Court of Appeals. McCaleb died in Claiborne county, Missouri, some months ago, leaving a large estate. He owned land in this county which the heirs have laid claim to. His will was presented in the County Court here for probate, but was refused. An appeal to the Circuit Court was taken and the decision of the lower court was reversed. The matter now goes to the Court of Appeals. In the meantime suit has been brought to recover the land here.

Suit Against an Insurance Co.

In the case of Mary B. Robinson's executor against the North British Mercantile Life Insurance Company, a transcript is being prepared and the case goes to the Court of Appeals also. This suit grew out of the failure of the insurance company to pay a $500 policy held on a dwelling house, near Howell, sold to Mr. P. H. Adcock, and which burned, the company alleging that they were not liable, as the policy had never been transferred.

Given Until Nov. 10th.

Bud Tyler, col., who was charged with throwing a rock into a car window at Pembroke, was tried before Judge Cansler and given 103 days in the workhouse. Under a special law, the officer, R. L. Moore, will get a reward of $50 for arresting Tyler.

In Police Court.

Tom Ennis was fined $5 and costs for obstructing the sidewalk with a corn popper.

The Work House Case.

The case of W. S. Cavanah against J. C. Johnson, to recover the position of work house keeper, will go up for a hearing in the Court of Appeals as soon as a transcript of same can be prepared.

VEACH CASE SETTLED.

The L. & N. Pays Over About $3,600.

The damage case of C. S. Veach against the Louisville & Nashville railroad, was finally settled yesterday. Veach had three fingers cut off and obtained judgment for $3,000. The case was appealed two years ago and was finally affirmed. All of the processes of law having been exhausted the company at last paid off the judgment in full, with the accrued interest for two years and other costs running the total amount up to between $3,600 and $3,700.

The lawyers in the case were C. H. Bush and W. R. Howell, and it is understood that attorneys get one-half of the amount. Mr. Veach received his money yesterday and left this morning on the train to take a trip somewhere. He was attired in a new suit of clothes and carried a new grip. He is a very poor man and the money is a windfall to him.

Not Expected to Live.

Mr. W. H. Everett received a telegram message from Fairview this morning stating that his nephew, Mr. John B. Everett, Jr., was not expected to live through the day. Mr. Everett at once went to Fairview. The young man has been sick for nearly three weeks with typhoid fever, but was thought to be much better the first of the week.

KNIGHTS PARADE.

Great Procession of Colored Lodge Members.

Picnic in Progress at Mercer Park With Many Hundred Visitors.

To-day has been a gala day with the Knights and Daughters of Tabor. The State Grand Lodge is drawing near the close of its annual meeting and the climax of the reunion was a parade on a large scale, which took place about noon.

Hundreds of the members marched in full regalia and great crowds of visitors from surrounding towns were on hand.

About 9:30 o'clock a big excursion of several hundred arrived on the L. C. from Fulton, Paducah and intermediate points. Hundreds of colored people from the country around are in town and they were reinforced by a large part of the colored population of the city.

The large gathering is massed in the commodious and accessible Mercer Park, where there is plenty of room and seating capacity for several thousand. It has been a great day for the Knights of Tabor and the meeting in this city will be a memorable one.

The program prepared by the local members has been elaborate in its hospitality and the visitors will return to their homes with many happy memories of the splendid entertainment given them.

The success of the affair is largely due to the work and direction of Prof. Peter Boyd and James Mercer, the presiding officers of the local lodge, assisted by a number of committees.

The day's exercises will conclude this afternoon with an exhibition drill by the the Palatine Guards.

Fairview Item.

The members of the Fairview Baptist church, says the Pembroke Review, have about raised the money to build a new parsonage on their lot. The following members were appointed to act as building committee, last Sunday: Jno. L. Mosley, P. E. Downer, B. D. Edkins and Thomas Woodson. They hope to have the house ready for occupancy by fall.

Sues the Town of Cadiz.

Suit was filed in the Circuit Court yesterday by Hon. Fenton Sims for Belle Roach, colored, against the town of Cadiz for $500 damages, says the Telephone. The plaintiff alleges to have been thus damaged by reason of her premises being overflowed during a high rise in the big gully some months ago; and said overflow is alleged to have been caused by the dam put across the gully on Brown street by the town.

MOONLIGHT RECEPTION.

Miss Hallie Collins Entertains in Honor of Miss Marshall.

Miss Hallie Collins entertained at her home on South Virginia street last evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Jennie B. Marshall, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Still Taking Stock.

The appraisers are still at work taking an inventory of the Richards & Co. stock and hope to complete it by the end of the week. Mr. R. E. Cooper, the assignee, says it has not yet been ascertained what the amount of the assets will be. As soon as the work is completed the plans for reopening the house will be formulated and made public.

Brought to the Asylum.

N. H. Carrico, one of the best known men in Graves county, was tried for lunacy and ordered sent to Hopkinsville asylum. He was at the Union depot under care of Sam Carrico and another gentleman from 2 to 4 o'clock this afternoon. The unfortunate man was barefooted, having refused to wear shoes, and had thrown his hat away. He laughed and danced like a happy boy while at the depot.—Paducah News.

Names Wanted for Six.

Triplets were born to the wives of Ike Coombs and Henry Reynolds, on Grapevine, last Monday night, at the same hour and in the same house. The entire outlay is of the male persuasion, and blessed with good health. The mothers are doing well and as to the daddies, it can be said they, too, are doing well.—Jackson Hustler.

"BEVARE OF THE VIDDERS."

A Methodist's Preacher's Unsuccessful Attempt.

Vicksburg, Ky., July 29.—Rev. George Hardiman, a well-known Methodist minister, and his wife parted under remarkable circumstances. A few months ago Rev. Hardiman, being a widower, married Mrs. George Knopp, a handsome widow of forty, with a daughter of eighteen. The couple lived happily together until to-day. Rev. Hardiman's stepdaughter had been saying some harsh things about Deacon Thomas Evans, a close friend of Rev. Hardiman. The latter went to his wife and mildly said, "Your daughter has been persecuting my friend and must quit it." Mrs. Hardiman thereupon went to her desk and wrote, "We, George Hardiman and wife, agree to forever disagree." She signed it and handed it to her husband; he immediately affixed his name. The two shook hands, and Rev. Hardiman left to return no more.

George Gary's Cousin.

Maj. Jno. C. Cabaniss, of the 5th Illinois, whose officers from captains down are on a "strike" for being left at Chickamauga after starting to the front, is a first cousin of Mr. Geo. E. Gary, of this city. His home is at Springfield, Ill., and he has all along been eager to get close to the Spaniards. Like the entire regiment he was filled with indignation and disgust when the 5th was left behind. All of the men blame Col. Culver for the turn-down.

Wants Colored Recruits.

An officer, supposed to be a recruiting officer, arrived here to-day from Chickamauga. He came for the purpose of securing recruits for the Tenth U. S. Cavalry, colored. He arrived at a most opportune time, but we were unable to learn what success he has attained.

How About Hopkinsville?

The people of Henderson are trying to get up a fair, with some prospects of success. It is proposed to hold it the week after the Owensboro fair, and to arrange so as to get most of the attractions from here. It will take some hustling to get things in shape, but the men at the head of it believe it can be done.—Owensboro inquirer.

Forbes & Bro. Will Build It.

The new board of school trustees at Allensville have selected the Gussie Haddox lot on the Elkton road on which to erect a new public school building, says the Progress. They propose to construct a building there to cost $1,500 and same will be ready for occupancy in September. Forbes & Bro., of Hopkinsville, have the contract.

The "Gen. Shafter" Apple.

We were shown this morning some samples of apples grown by Mr. Jesse Giles, near Howell, that were the largest on record in this office. One of them measured 14 inches one way and 13 inches the other. Mr. M. F. Crenshaw brought them in, and in the absence of another name has christened the big variety the "Gen. Shafter."

Storm Last Night.

Another nocturnal storm, with rain and lightning, occurred between mid night and daybreak last night.

The Prince of Wales is recovering from his crippled knee.
